Welcome

Assalamu alaikum,

If you're holding this planner, it means you're serious about making this Ramadan count. You're not just planning to fast — you're planning to transform.

This planner was designed to give you structure without rigidity, accountability without guilt, and a system that works with your faith — not against it. Every page is built around the rhythms of Ramadan: the pre-dawn quiet of suhoor, the five daily prayers that anchor your day, the communal breaking of fast, and the deep worship of the night.

How to Use This Planner

1 Begin with Intention

Start on the Niyah page. Write your deepest intentions for this Ramadan before Day 1 begins. Return to this page whenever you need to recalibrate.

2 Set Your Goals

Use the Goals page to define what success looks like across four dimensions: spiritual, personal, charitable, and social.

3 Track Daily

Each of the 30 daily pages gives you space to plan your day, track your worship, log your meals, and reflect each night. Fill it in as you go — not all at once.

4 Reflect Weekly

Every Friday, use the Weekly Reflection page for your Jumu'ah review. What went well? What needs adjusting? Where did you see barakah?

5 Intensify the Last 10

The special Last 10 Nights section helps you plan your most focused worship for the nights when Laylatul Qadr may fall.

6 Carry It Forward

After Eid, the Post-Ramadan page ensures your transformation doesn't end with the month.

"Whoever fasts Ramadan out of sincere faith and hoping for reward from Allah, all his previous sins will be forgiven."

— Prophet Muhammad ﷺ (Bukhari & Muslim)

Let's begin. Bismillah.

My Niyyah

● WHY AM I FASTING THIS RAMADAN?

Beyond obligation – what do you personally want from this month?
